The House by the Side of the Road

*Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by —
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran —
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.*

*I see from my house by the side of the road
By the side of the highway of life —
The men who pass with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife,
But I turn not away from their smiles nor
their tears,
Both parts of an infinite plan —
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.*

*Let me live in a house by the side of the road
It's here the race of men go by —
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish — so am I —
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man —*
